

KIDS MOBILITY NETWORK EXPANDS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

LITTLETON, CO, July 5, 2007 – Kids Mobility Network, Inc., a Denver area non-profit organization announced today that it has named three new board members.

“I am pleased to announce the appointment of three new board members to Kids Mobility Network’s board of directors,” stated Peter Kopp, Chairman of the Board of Kids Mobility Network, Inc. “We’re very fortunate to have attracted three new board members that bring additional clinical, marketing and public relations skills, which are important to our further development and implementation. We appreciate their dedication to our mission.”

New board members include:

- Phillip G. Allen, Board Member - Mr. Allen is a successful member of Denver’s business community, co-founding a number of telecommunications companies in the Denver metro area. He has also served a number of executive positions throughout his career in the areas of marketing communications, investor relations and media relations for a number of companies.
- Sarita Parikh, MPT, Board Member - Ms. Parikh is a masters-level Physical Therapist who specializes in the treatment of children with physical disabilities. She is the owner of Mind, Body and Play Therapies as well as Artistic Innovations, which provides recreation and therapeutic programs for special needs children. Ms. Parikh earned her masters degree in physical therapy from Boston University.
- Melissa Robbins, Board Member - Mrs. Robbins is an 11-year resident in Colorado. She is an advertising and marketing executive and serves as the Publisher of the Denver/Boulder/Fort Collins Apartment Guide. She serves on the Board of Directors of the Apartment Association of Metro Denver and is a past board member of the Colorado Human Resources Assoc.
