

KIDS MOBILITY NETWORK RECEIVES GRANT FROM COMMISSIONERS OF DOUGLAS COUNTY, COLORADO

LITTLETON, CO, June 23, 2007 – Kids Mobility Network, Inc., a Denver area non-profit organization announced today that it has received a grant from the Commissioners of Douglas County, Colorado to serve children with disabilities in Douglas County.

“We are very appreciative of the grant we’ve received from the Commissioners of Douglas County,” stated Christy Kopp, Executive Director of Kids Mobility Network, Inc. “Since Kids Mobility Network is based in Douglas County, we’ve been able to make a nice impact in Douglas County with past funds provided from the Douglas County Commissioners. We expect to continue to provide significant community benefit in Douglas County with this year’s funds.”

Kids Mobility Network utilized funds from a 2006 grant from Douglas County to provide citizens of Douglas County with forty-one (41) pieces of durable medical equipment (“DME”), representing community benefit that exceeded 600% of the grant amount.

The members of Kids Mobility Network’s board of directors issues a formal thank you to the Douglas County Commissioners for their continued support of the organization.
